Mike graduated Marshall High School in 1984. He went on to graduate from Ferris State University with a B.S. in Accounting.

He worked for many years as a corporate accountant before he was approached by the City of Albion to take over the duties as their income tax collector. He moved from income tax collector to deputy treasurer before he started in economic development.

Mike worked as the vice president of Albion Economic Development from 2000 to 2006. In August of 2006, he took a position with Battle Creek Unlimited to provide economic development services for the Marshall community.

During his tenure with Battle Creek Unlimited, Mike has lead efforts on 14 expansion projects and two ownership transfers that have secured investments in Marshall totaling over $39 million. He currently serves as staff administrator of the Marshall Economic Development Corporation, the Brownfield Redevelopment Authority and the Local Development Finance Authority. He serves on the board of the Marshall United Way and the Marshall Airport Board.
